Summary

This discussion provided a global overview of the coronavirus pandemic and the role of the WHO in helping to overcome it. The challenges faced by the WHO were outlined, and the philosophy behind its approach to matters such as lockdown, PPE (in particular facemasks) and data gathering were considered.

Evaluation, Reflection and Impact on Practice

On reflection, while this discussion is not directly relevant to treating patients, it provided the basis for communicating important information to them, much of which might help ease their anxiety, thus contributing to better recovery.

Confirmation

I confirm that this is an accurate reflection of my learning during this event.
