

CPD EVENT RECORD

TELEHEALTH CONSULTATIONS

Evaluation, Reflection and Impact on Practice:

This discussion provided guidance on how telehealth consultations might be conducted. The need for informed consent and accurate note-taking was emphasised, as well as simple preparations to ensure that cameras, computer desktop and furniture were organised to give the most professional result. Possible fee structures were also discussed. The potential for a consult to be recorded was discussed, along with the evident need for consent and careful data protection.
